Membership Director

Hi everyone, this is John Jordan your Pa State Membership Chairman.

Everyone is doing a great job of getting new members and getting the dropped members back. It is important to get our dropped members back. Tell them we miss them and how important they are to the Eagle organization. As of September 26th, we have 2,572 members this year. Remind the dropped members that if they renew by May 31st, 2023, they will not lose the former years of their membership.

On September 16th the State Secretary Dwaine Shupe, Jack Shirey and myself went to Ford City where they were holding the State golf tournament to visit our fellow eagles. We met up with Everyone's friend that held every office Bob Wahls and Carol, Mike and Sylvia Clepper, State Aerie President Clint Slima, State Vice president Joe Bargella, State 5th year Trustee Ray Roberts. The Aerie was packed with their members and anxious golfers ready for the next day.

Then the next Day on September 17th, The State Auxiliary held their Fall Conference at the Quality inn at New Kensington, Pa. Kristy Flood, the Auxiliary State Membership Chairperson, did a fantastic job holding their meetings. She and I have a bet that the men will beat the ladies 4.5 to 1. So that is why we need the members. we can't let them beat us. Grand Madam President Elaine Regi, Grand Madam Trustee Annie Taylor, State Madam President Betty Lou Kaylin and so many Pa. State Aux. Past State Presidents and State Officers were there. Also, several Pa. State Aerie Past Presidents and State Officers were there. Then there was the Toast Mistress and her accomplice they killed everyone with humor. They came in as Oscar and Felix the cats. Ruthie, my wife and John Jr. my son. Let's put it this way, you had to be there. Clint and I was on the killing list. GREAT JOB KRISTY.

Then on September 24th Clint and I visited Ocean View Delaware. Where we were met by Pa. State Inside Guard Eric Davis.

The officer's present was President Eric Davis, Sec. Tina, Assist. Sec. Shannon, Glenn Treasurer, Bud Head Trustee, Trustee Gordy, Chef Jeff, and Bartenders Butch and Laura. I went around and Clint and I visited with everyone, and I sold his pins for his charity. They had Polish food night in honor of Clint and I. Chef Jeff had Homemade Kielbasa, a form of Haluska, pierogies and stuffed cabbages. Great job Jeff. I put the pressure on Secretary Tina and Trustee Bud. There is a plaque that had 153 members on and asked them if they could beat that. She said no problem. They signed up 7 new members that night. Great job.

Keep up the good work. Clint and I would love to visit your Aerie or District Meeting. Just give Dwaine Shupe State Aerie Sec. a call.

May God Bless, John Jordan PA. State Membership Chairman
